

I do not want the telephone privacy law changed. For the first time, I can get some sleep since I work at night. If these banks do this, I personally will not do any business with the banks that are involved. Please do what you can to stop this and I will do the same by letting people know about this. There are other ways of conducting a business besides invading your home privacy through the telephone. Thanks Debbie